

naousa 2010

2nd Regional Summer Session
European Youth Parliament, Greece

Dear EYPers,

We are glad to invite you to EYP Greece's 2nd Regional Summer Session, Naousa 2010, which will take place from 13th to 19th of July in Naousa, Greece. Naousa 2010 is a unique event that will gather more than 140 participants from all over Europe. The session programme includes the basic EYP elements, but also other traditional EYP cultural and social events.

You may find further information at the session's website <http://regional.eypgreece.org>

We are now looking for Chairs, Editors and Journalists.

The deadline for applications is Friday, 30th of April, 00.00 EET.

All the officials will be asked to arrive on Monday, July 12th in order to take part in the Officials' training. The participation fee for officials will be 60 euros per person.

All those who are available and interested in attending should send their applications at naousa.chairs@gmail.com (for Chairs and Editors) and naousa.journos@gmail.com (for Journalists).

How to apply?

As Chairperson/VP:

- A list of previous sessions attended (National, Regional, and International) including the position held, name of the committee, and the name of Chairperson / Editor / Head Organiser / President
- What you think you can uniquely bring to this session as a Chairperson
- A committee topic suggestion and reasoning.
- Personal details (name, age, nationality, e-mail, phone number)

As Editor:

- A list of previous sessions attended (National, Regional, and International) including the position held, name of the committee, and the name of Chairperson / Editor / Head Organiser / President
- Ideas and vision for the session newspaper, journalist involvement in the session, and plans for a high quality paper.
- Personal details (name, age, nationality, e-mail, phone number)

As Journalist:

- A list of previous sessions attended (National, Regional, and International) including the position held, name of the committee, and the name of Chairperson / Editor / Head Organiser / President
- Why you want to be a part of Naousa 2010 Pressroom
- An article of maximum 400 words on what EYP means to you
- Personal details (name, age, nationality, e-mail, phone number)

All applicants will be informed individually of the outcome of their application. You may find the application form attached.

We are all looking forward to receiving your applications and welcoming you in Naousa!

Best regards,
EYP Greece